

Doris Jones: (b. 1988)

Metis archer, Doris Jones, has set 127 Canadian Records, 15 World Records and is a 3 time world champion in archery. Doris took up the sport at age four. She is now ranked first in Junior and ranked first in Senior & Master women ages in Canada for Outdoor FITA Target. In 2003 she was named Archer of the Year by the Archers and Bowhunter's Association of Manitoba. On March 14, 2004 she was a National Metis Youth Role Model recipient for athletic achievement. She was again named as a Youth Role model in 2005. In 2007, she was a gold medallist in the Canada Winter Games and she was named - Tom Longboat Female Aboriginal Athlete of the Year.

Compiled by Lawrence Barkwell
Coordinator of Metis Heritage & History Research
Louis Riel Institute