

Leo Dufault

Léo Dufault is a Franco-Manitoban Métis with 39 years of radio, television and film experience. He has produced four music discs and dozens of documentaries for television and radio and has served on the boards of Manitoba Film and Music, the Manitoba Film Classification Board and the Winnipeg Folk Festival. He is also a member of the Manitou Ahbee board of governors.

Léo has also programmed film events, reviewed movies for public radio and television, and attended cinéma festivals, such as Cannes, as a buyer, critic and film buff.

Compiled by Lawrence Barkwell
Coordinator of Metis Heritage and History Research
Louis Riel Institute