

PROOF OF METIS ANCESTRY

The Metis Nation of Saskatchewan Constitution states applicants must be able to prove Aboriginal Ancestry. Citizens who are transferring from other locals or whose family members are already registered must show proof of registration from the locals cited.

STEPS FOR PROVING YOUR METIS ANCESTRY

1. Fill out the genealogy form attached to your MNS citizenship application and indicate which person(s) are Aboriginal.
2. Provide documentation which indicates at least one of the people is Aboriginal.
  - ∞ Metis Scrip documents
  - ∞ Treaty documents
  - ∞ Birth Certificates which state Indian or Metis
3. Tie the person from #2 to yourself.
  - ∞ Birth or Baptism Records
4. IF THE ABOVE IS AN IMPOSSIBILITY, THE WORD OF A RECOGNIZED ELDER IS ACCEPTABLE. THE ELDER MUST KNOW THE FAMILY BACKGROUND OF THE APPLICANT.

Applying for Metis Citizenship is a declaration that you are a part of the Metis Nation. Any false declarations will be subject to immediate suspension of citizenship and recall of your citizenship card.
