

July 28, 1994

MÉTIS NATION DECLARATION

The Métis Nation values self-reliance, self-sufficiency and individual and collective rights and freedoms. The Métis Nation possesses the right of self-determination, including the inherent right of Métis Governance which may be expressed and implemented by its citizens at the local, regional, provincial/territorial and national levels.

ADOPTED

Browning

Trudely MNC Winnipeg

MNC recommend 10M
4000000
Sep 11 C
Obrien

4+2BC

July 28, 1994

DRAFT #3

Loni B. ent.

Declaration of the Métis Nation

The Métis Nation values self-reliance, self-sufficiency and individual and collective rights and freedoms. The Métis Nation possesses the right of self-determination, including the inherent right of Métis Governance which may be expressed and implemented by its citizens at the local, regional, provincial/territorial and national levels.