

H is for Hunt

O is for Oxen

T is for Trapper

Why would the Métis want to pull their carts by horses some of the time and by oxen at others? Find out here <http://www.metismuseum.ca/resource.php/00728>

Hunting and trapping were essential survival skills at one time, for food and as a source of fur, sinew, and medicine. Selling furs helped a Métis family survive. Some Métis hunt and trap today. Find out about the seasonal cycle used by the Métis to harvest plants and animals in various seasons. Visit <http://www.metismuseum.ca/resource.php/00742>

